Thousands of Them Participate in the Annual Parade

THROUGH MILWAUKEE STREETS.

General Sherman Reviews the Hosts in Blue from a Grand Stand—First Annual Work of the Encampment

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 28.—Gen. T. Sherman sat for over three hours at the blazing sun on the reviewing stand in Washington square, while the boys in blue filed by.

The annual parade of the Grand Army was a brilliant success, and it was interesting from the fact that it may be the last that "Old Cumsey" will witness. It was the best day of the year, and the sun beat down with remorseless fury, but the veterans turned out in force, and the line of march, a distance of two and a half miles, was packed with spectators. Nearly 20,000 of the spectators had arrived since shutdown of Monday.

GEN. SHERMAN.

The annual meeting of the famous Iron Brigade, which was held last night was of an exciting nature. Gen. Gibbs was re-elected president by acclamation, but there was an animated fight for the first vice presidency between the supporters of Gen. Bragg and Gen. Woodward, of Lacrosse. The former had held the position for several years, up to 1888, when he was defeated, largely owing to it was claimed, to his political connections. It had been accidentally expected that at this election he would be restored to his old position, but the same influences again prevailed, and after a lively discussion Gen. Bragg's friends refused to allow his name to go to a vote and Gen. Woodward was elected with some opposition.

REUNION HEADQUARTERS, (Court House).

Mrs. Logan, escorted by Maj. Venable, of Vermont, and Mrs. Alger and daughter, occupied the front seats of the reviewing stand, and the widow of the ex-senator and general was accorded an enthusiastic greeting by the veterans as they passed by. The parade started at a few minutes past 10 and the rear had not reached the stand at 1 o'clock. The Missouri delegations occupied the right of line, the vexed question having been conceded by the Illinoisans. The main's Post Cheer the General.

Gen. Sherman stood up, bare-headed as Ransom post of St. Louis, his own post, marched by, and there was a suspicious moisture in his eyes when they stopped and gave him a three times three. Nine out of every ten of the bands rendered "Marching Through Georgia," as they neared the stand and his patience was sorely tried.

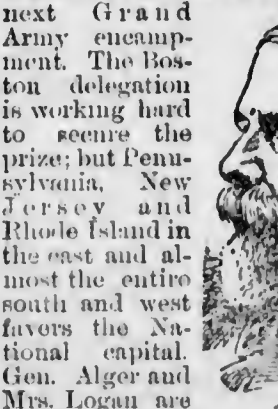

Gen. Alger marched on foot with the Phil Kearney post of Muskegon, Mich., receiving a continuous ovation. Corporal Tanner rode in a carriage between the New York delegations.

The Kentucky delegation carried at its head the tattered flag of the First Regiment Army of the Cumberland, and there were a number of other interesting incidents.

Capt. Meridith, chief of the bureau of engraving, marched with the Oak Park, Ill., post. All the posts presented a fine appearance, but by far the largest showing was made by Wisconsin. The parade was in nine divisions, the Sons of Veterans bringing up the rear.

After the Next Encampment.

It is nip and tuck between Washington and Boston as to the location of the next Grand Army encampment. The Boston delegation is working hard to secure the prize; but Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Rhode Island in the east and almost the entire south and west favors the National capital. Gen. Alger and Mrs. Logan are putting in some effective work toward the same end. The council of administration received a dispatch from Gen. S. S. Burdette, of Washington, tending an official invitation for the district, and suggesting that the encampment be held in May next, which will be the twenty-fifth anniversary of the great Grand Army review. District Commissioner Hine, of

GEN. ALGER.

Washington, also wired the encampment, urging that the invitation be accepted.

Woman's Relief Corps.

Yesterday afternoon was devoted by the veterans to the business of a score or more of reunions of army posts and corps. Last night the opening session of the Woman's Relief Corps was held at the high school building.

Mayor Brown delivered the address of welcome.

CHARITY RUSK CRAIG, and Mrs. Craig, president of the National Woman's Christian Temperance union, Gen. Fairchild and Gen. Howell, delivered addresses.

Nearly 8,000 people last night attended the first of the great war song concerts which was given in the park and tent on Juneau park and the lake front. The arsenal band of St. Louis furnished the accompaniments, and there was a chorus of 500 male voices.

War Song Concert.

The vessel owners held a meeting yesterday and appointed a committee to wait on Mr. Matthews, the home secretary, to inquire if the government was prepared to give them protection in case they undertook to bring men here from other points to load and unload the ships now at this port. Mr. Matthews assured the members of the committee that they should receive ample protection, but when asked to advise them declined to express any opinion as to the wisdom of the course they proposed. He pointed out to them, however, the grave consequences which were almost certain to result from an attempt at this time to fill the places of the strikers with foreigners and suggested that they do nothing rashly.

The committee reported at a joint meeting of the ship owners and the dock companies. The conference was strictly private and reporters were excluded. It was learned, however, that a decision was reached not to make an attempt to handle freight with the new men that have been engaged.

Changed Their Minds.

A large steamer is on the way to London now from Hamburg, and another from Antwerp with men who have been hired at those points to take the places of the striking dock laborers. But instructions will be sent to land these men at neighboring ports and on no account to bring them to London.

A Plan Proposed.

A plan was prepared at the meeting and very favorably received, to gradually send the vessels now lying here to the nearest ports to be loaded and unloaded and ship their cargoes to and from London by rail. Nearly 8,000 laborers who have been hired at foreign ports, and who are now on the way here are to be sent to those places to assist in loading and discharging vessels. In this way they hope to tide over the present difficulties and to starve the strikers into submission, without furnishing them an excuse for open violence by bringing men here to take their places.

No definite action was taken yesterday, but it is quite likely that this plan will be adopted, and then fifty of the steamers now lying helpless here will be dispatched at once to Dover, Portsmouth, Southampton, Hull and even as far as New Castle, where their cargoes will be unloaded and shipped to London by rail.

The strikers not frightened.

The leaders of the striking laborers laugh at this attempt at a flank movement. They say the enormous cost of such a proceeding would alone condemn it to failure, but apart from this, if the attempt is seriously made, they could effectually checkmate the ship owners by ordering out the freight handlers at the London termini of the railroads, who, they say, are even now anxious to strike.

Food for the Strikers.

The public subscriptions in aid of the strikers now amount to £3,000, and this sum will be used chiefly for the purchase and distribution of food tickets. Over 100,000 men in different occupations are now on a strike, and all look for orders to Burns, the Socialist agitator, whose excellent management of the strike thus far elicits surprise and admiration from friend and foe alike.

The Chamber of Commerce Takes Part.

The London chamber of commerce held a special meeting yesterday, called for the purpose of taking action with reference to the disastrous condition of things brought about by the existing strike. The meeting was very largely attended, representative men from all branches of trade and industry being present, speeches were made roundly denouncing the dock companies for their action, and resolutions were passed urging them to agree to arbitration.

A committee of prominent business men were appointed to wait on officials of the company to present the resolutions, and they were instructed to use their best efforts to prevail upon the dock companies to end the strike.

Justice of the Strikers' Demands.

Seven members of the house commons called upon the dock managers and labored with them for nearly two hours in an effort to induce them to yield. They urged the justice of the demands made by the laborers, and asked them to concede the insignificant advance of wages sought. They pointed out that the situation was hourly growing worse, and that nothing short of absolute ruin for vast interests of London and England was threatened as a result of ill-considered obstinacy at this critical juncture on their part.

The managers were all politeness, but held out no encouragement, and the MADISON, Wis., Aug. 28.—Monday a United States detective arrested Joseph Broze, son of a prominent local hotel manager, on the charge of taking letters from the Madison postoffice. Much money, railway tickets, drafts etc. have been missed, and some suspicious fragments were found in Broze's house. He has been held for trial in $1,000 bonds. He was a letter carrier here for several years, and thus secured free access to the working part of the postoffice.

At the Columbus Penitentiary—Property Valued at $100,000 Destroyed.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 28.—About 8 o'clock last night a fire broke out inside the penitentiary walls, which destroyed about $100,000 of property in less than two hours. The chair shop, the lamp shop, and the old cooper shop, were totally destroyed, entailing a loss to the state on the buildings of between $30,000 and $35,000. The fire is supposed to have originated in the boiler-room of the chair shop, and was under considerable headway before discovered.

The principal losers are the Columbus Chair company, $15,000, with $8,000 insurance; J. W. Damm Manufacturing company, $4,000, with $2,000 insurance; Columbus belt works, E. B. Lammann, between $10,000 and $50,000, with $25,000 insurance, and Corner Bush Manufacturing company about $10,000, with insurance. The fire department was hampered by the lack of water pressure inside the penitentiary inclosure.

During the fire a cornice fell off one of the burning buildings and injured two firemen and one prisoner. The firemen were Thomas P. Kerin and George Strydom, who received slight cuts. The prisoner, Daniel Sheridan, was sent up from Hamilton county on a five years' sentence for burglary. He received a scalp wound, and was burned on the shoulders. None of the men are dangerously injured.

Growing Very Great.

The Strike in London Rapidly Increasing.

THOUSANDS ADDED EVERY DAY.

No Prospect for an immediate Settlement of the Trouble—Ship Owners Refuse to Concede, Though Urged to From Nearly Every Source—Other Foreign Information.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—Thousands of coal porters have joined the strikers and the situation instead of improving is growing worse hourly. Meetings of strikers and employers continue, but thus far they have been barren of results. The directors of the dock company have declined an offer to supply the places of the strikers with 3,000 Belgians at four pence half penny per hour presumably because they fear an outbreak as the result of its acceptance.

Vessel Owners Ask Protection.

The vessel owners held a meeting yesterday and appointed a committee to wait on Mr. Matthews, the home secretary, to inquire if the government was prepared to give them protection in case they undertook to bring men here from other points to load and unload the ships now at this port. most compromising statement that could be extorted from them was that they "would consider it."

Burns, the leader of the strike, addressed a meeting of strikers last night declaring the strike was the beginning of a new era for workmen.

They Refuse to Arbitrate.

Delegates from the leading business houses in twelve important trades called upon the officials of the London Dock company yesterday, and urged that the company consent to submit its differences with the strikers to arbitration. The officials received the delegation, but declined to accede to their proposals.

A Small Riot in Paris.

PARIS, Aug. 28.—A crowded meeting of Bonapartists was held here yesterday evening to protest against the conviction and sentence of their chief. Those present were mostly workmen. The police were thickly distributed in and about the hall, and a large force of military were held in readiness outside while the meeting was in progress. MM. Laisant and Laguerre spoke severely, condemning the action of the senate in convicting Bonaparte. The question being put as to whether Bonaparte should receive their further support, those present unanimously declared that they would continue to uphold the brave general and his policy. A disorderly mob occupied the street in front of the hall where the meeting was held, and soon began to stone the police. This was kept up until the mounted guard charged into the mob and arrested many of the most disorderly of the number.

Very Destructive Earthquake.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 28.—The village of Khonzhik on the frontier, was visited by a terrible earthquake yesterday, which destroyed the larger part of the town. Great fissures opened in the earth, and in many cases the villagers were swallowed up by the dozen. So far 120 people are known to have been buried alive in this way.

The Trip a Failure.

ROME, Aug. 28.—It is believed in Rome that the friction between the Czar of Russia and the Emperor of Germany is too serious to be removed, and that the coming visit of the czar to William will result in nothing. The pronounced leaning of England toward the triple alliance is now the most reliable guarantee for the peace of Europe.

Fearful Ravages of Cholera.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—The cholera, which has been making fearful havoc in Baghdad, has spread to other points in Mesopotamia notwithstanding the precautions which were taken to cut off all communication with that city, and is now ravaging the entire province.

After the Anarchists.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—The Swiss government is energetically looking after the foreign Anarchists domiciled in Switzerland, and up to the present time eighty of these unwelcome guests have already been expelled.

THE WORLD'S WHEAT CROP.

It is Twelve Million Bushels Less Than Last Year.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—The American wheat crop for the current year will be about 500,000,000 bushels, or 80,000,000 more than last year. Under ordinary circumstances this would mean cheaper flour at home and a large surplus to carry over to next year. But there are short wheat crops elsewhere.

This shortage is as follows: Russia 72,000,000 bushels; Hungary, 36,000,000; Roumania, 8,000,000; Germany, 8,000,000; India, 18,000,000; and South America and Australia, 24,000,000; total, 196,000,000. The increases are: United States, 82,000,000; Canada, 8,000,000; England and France, 32,000,000; Italy, Spain, Belgium, Holland and Algeria, 32,000,000; total, 194,000,000.

This shows the world's wheat crop to be about 12,000,000 bushels less than last year, and as the reserves are lower than at that time it seems quite probable that the bulk of our surplus crop will be needed for exports.

Jack Dempsey Knocked Out.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.—Great interest was excited by last night's fight between Jack Dempsey, the "Nonpareil," and George LeBlanche, the "Marine," at the California Athletic club. About 2,000 people were fortunate enough to gain entrance to the gymnasium, while a great number thronged the street outside. Herman Cook, of this city, acted as referee. Dempsey's seconds were Denny Costigan and Dave Campbell. LeBlanche's seconds were John Donaldson and Paddy Gorman. Betting was $100 to $35 in Dempsey's favor. Thirty-two rounds were fought, and resulted in Dempsey getting knocked out.

LATE estimates place the majority in favor of a Constitutional Convention at 30,000. The poll books from 208 precincts in twenty-one counties show a majority for the convention of 12,912.

What's the matter with our contemporary, the Fleming Gazette? It is generally supposed that our neighbor is a good Republican, but it evidently is not pleased with the way things are run at Washington City. It remarks:

About all the Harrison family has been provided for, and the rank and file can now send in their applications with better prospect of success. It is Harrison's only mistake—barring slowness in turning out Free-traders—and he could easily have steered clear of that. We have to have some sand in our sugar.

Other mutterings of discontent are heard, and it looks like a good many of the faithful are getting too much "sand in their sugar."

OUR NEIGHBORS.

MT. GILEAD.

Miss Lide Morehead is quite sick. Farmers are done thrashing in this vicinity. Hogs are selling at $1 per hundred pounds. Constable J. M. Turner is preparing to build a house.

George Turner was in Maysville Tuesday on business.

We are anticipating a wedding in this vicinity next month.

Mrs. Jan A. Conter has returned home from a visit to relatives at Mt. Carmel.

Mrs. Amanda Fitch, of Flemingsburg, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Nancy Turner, near here.

Several of our citizens attended County Court at Flemingsburg Monday. There was a large crowd but business was dull.

MAYS LICK.

The colored picnic near here last Saturday was poorly attended.

James Cogan is here visiting his brother John. He arrived last Monday.

W. H. Arthur and Walter Mathews left for the Lexington fair Tuesday morning.

We are having it hot, dry and nasty. Rain is badly needed for tobacco and grass.

There was a small blaze at the colored Baptist parsonage last Monday evening. Damage light, but a big scare.

Ed Hedges, of Paris, was at the Stonewall house Monday in the interest of the Daily Post, of Cincinnati.

Miss Ida Richards, of Maysville, Professor Johnson's assistant, has arrived and is ready to assume her duties in the school room.

Sanford Roff had one of his fine work mules to fall in a well Sunday evening, but by hard work it was gotten out without much damage.

John Piles' house burned Saturday, three miles north of this place on the Lexington pike. He saved the best of his furniture. No insurance. He will rebuild at once.

John T. Worthington was married last Thursday to a charming young lady of Lewis County. They arrived here Monday and had a big reception at his father's, Charles T. Worthington, that night. It is his second marriage.

The colored Christian Church here will be dedicated next Sunday, September 1st. Elder Graves, of Paris, arrived Monday night to have all things in readiness for the occasion. They will all be here Sunday, don't you forget it.

HELENA.

Miss Belle Porter is the guest of Miss Ada Rice.

S. D. Clarke is attending the Lexington fair this week.

The Misses Bigstaff, of Mt. Sterling, are the guests of Miss Lula Horn.

Miss Nellie Hall, of Maysville, will teach the Helena school, starting Monday night.

Miss Charlotte Cook and Johnnie Allen, of Moorefield, are here visiting friends.

Squire Campbell and family have gone to Miss's Mill, where they expect to locate this fall.

Miss Anna Ross returned to her home near Flemingsburg Sunday, after a protracted visit here.

Messrs. Charles Sweet and John Peck, Jr., are the guests of Dr. D. D. Peck. They are from Shorthorn.

Messrs. John Hughes and George Gray, tobacco men out of Hillsboro, spent Sunday last with relatives here.

Mrs. J. B. Crutcher and son, Wilford, returned to their home in Lexington Friday, after a protracted visit in this neighborhood.

Miss Eliza Kays, of North Fork, will teach the Millwood school, and Miss Anna Ford, of Fair Play, teaches our town school. All schools open the first or second Monday in September.

Railway News.

An excursion train to Old Point Comfort passed East over the C. & O. yesterday.

The Louisville Southern's branch to Lexington has been completed and was opened for traffic this week.

The Equiner says that the increase in C. and O. business has grown so rapidly that the line was compelled to go West and lease ten engines in order to handle the traffic. Five have already been received and five more are to come.

Mr. J. T. Harahan, General Manager; I. G. Rawn, Superintendent of Transportation; H. Frazier, Superintendent of Maintenance of Way; M. B. Catter, Superintendent of Huntingdon Division, and J. W. Hopkins, Fuel Agent, have been on an inspection trip through the extensive coal districts on the C. and O. Road. The coal mining on the line of the C. & O. is growing very rapidly, now amounting to about 600 cars per day. In addition to this the coke ovens and iron furnaces are doing a big business.

An impressive evidence of the astonishing growth of railways in this country is contained in the brief table of Poor's Manual, showing the amount of rolling stock in the United States in each of the last twelve years. It appears that from 1877 to 1889 the number of locomotive engines increased from 15,911 to 29,398, or nearly doubled, that passenger cars have increased from 12,053 to 21,425, mail, baggage and express cars from 3,854 to 6,827 and freight cars from 392,175 to 1,005,116. Meantime the railway mileage of the country has grown from 79,088 miles to 156,082 miles at the end of 1888, an increase of 76,994 miles.

May Remove Grant's Remains.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—It is said that since New York has failed to keep her promise in building a monument to the memory of Gen. Grant, the Grand Army, in their encampment, will take some action in regard to transferring his remains to Arlington. The Washington post makes a strong plea for the change.

Hereditary Elopements.

"I am not prepared to say whether marriage in general is a failure, but runaway marriages certainly are in one sense," said an old physician yesterday. "They are a success in being imitated by several generations that follow. Many years ago an elopement was a matter of great public interest, and was usually accompanied by some thrilling incidents, such as a pursuit by the angry father and possibly a pitched battle between the young men and the girl's male relatives. In this way some of the old time runaway matches were impressed on my mind. You would be surprised if I were to show you the record of the descendants of some of these gay old couples. It seems to be a family trait in many instances, and the mania runs through several generations. I know one gentleman who has never forgiven one of his children for eloping, and yet he ran off with his bride thirty years ago, and there have been three or four similar escapades in the same family. His descendants will keep on running away until the mania wears itself out; it seems hereditary, and the children can no more help running away than they can help looking like their parents."—Louisville Commercial.

Saved by Lying Down.

A Kansas paper relates that a cattle raiser near Severy went out into his feed lot recently on foot. The cattle became infuriated and made a rush at him. He fell flat on the ground and remained perfectly quiet. The mad, bellowing herd came up and tramped round and round, often smelling of his body, but never attempting to injure it. After four hours in this position some men noticed the peculiar action of the herd and went in and rescued him.—Chicago Herald.

Victoria's Will.

Victoria's will was made in 1876, engrossed on vellum, and is now a great bound volume fastened with a lock, with several blank pages left for subsequent codicils. The last was made recently and distributed the jubilee gifts. Some are left to the state and the others are distributed among the members of the royal family.—New York Sun.

Bad Form.

Little girls talk to their dolls very much as they themselves have been talked to by their mothers; and boys, more or less consciously, fall into the same sort of imitation, in dealing with their dogs.

A boy jumped into a horse car, and before long discovered that his bull terrier was trotting behind.

"Go back, sir!" he cried; "go back!" But the dog kept on, revealing at once his fondness for his master's society and his poor training.

"Oh, well," said the boy, finally—and here is where his imitative spirit crops out—"Oh, well, I suppose you can go, if you want to so bad; but you ain't fit to be seen, all dirt and no collar on."—Youth's Companion.

Wm. R. Fleming has been commissioned a Storekeeper in this district.

Mrs. Elizabeth Robinson, an old citizen of Paris, died Monday at the age of eighty years.

The time to insure is before you have a fire. Call on John Daley and secure reliable indemnity.

Mr. T. F. Kiff organized a division of the Sons of Temperance at Concord Monday night with twenty-five members.

Prayer meeting at the Central Presbyterian Church this evening at 7:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Russell Cecil.

Mrs. John Duley's friends will be glad to learn that her health is steadily improving. She is with her parents at Millersburg.

The steamer Silver Wave will run to Ripley fair each day. Round trip only 40 cents. Returning, leaves Ripley after fair is over.

The Manchester fair will come off next week—September 4th, 5th and 6th. The BULLETIN acknowledges the receipt of a complimentary.

Misses Emma and Bettie Young give notice elsewhere that their school for young ladies and children will be reopened next Monday.

The G. A. R. will have a re-union at Ironton on September 3rd, 4th, 5th and 6th. There will be an industrial parade on Wednesday, the 4th.

Elder E. L. Powell closed his meeting in the Christian Church at Winchester Sunday night, after about one week's services. Large crowds attended throughout. There were ten additions.

Filled-gold and solid-silver headed umbrellas made of the best silk, at Balenger's jewelry store. The handsomest goods in that line in town. If you need one, don't fail to call and see his stock.

'Squire John Ryan, the efficient Superintendent of the County Infirmary, has presented the BULLETIN with the Irish potatoes awarded the blue ribbon at the fair last week. They are the Early Rose variety, and are certainly as fine as ever grown in the county.

John Hauck, of Chester, is laid up with a broken leg. He was driving a lumber wagon yesterday when the team got to kicking. In jumping off he broke one of his legs below the knee; or it was broken by a kick from the horse. He doesn't know exactly how it happened.

Frank Wormald, aged about ten years, fell from a coal flat at the foot of Wall street yesterday afternoon, and would have drowned, had not Mr. Kinnie McClanahan hurried to the scene. As it was, it took some time to entirely revive the little fellow. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wormald.

McDonald, Shea & Co., composed of Memphis and Knoxville parties, have received the contract for the completion of the entire unfinished part of the Charleston, Cincinnati and Chicago road between Marion, N. C., and Minneapolis, Va. The estimated cost of the work is over $2,000,000. The line runs through the richest mineral belts of Virginia, North Carolina and Tennessee. It will connect the celebrated Cranberry ore mines of North Carolina with the flat-top coal region of Kentucky. This is the road that it is thought will connect with the Chattahoochee, terminating at Ashland.

The funeral of Dr. Garrett H. Holton, at the family residence yesterday afternoon, was largely attended by relatives and friends. Elder E. L. Powell, of Louisville, officiated, closing with appropriate and touching remarks, after which the remains were tenderly laid to rest in the Maysville cemetery. A profusion of beautiful floral offerings were strewn about the coffin and grave, in affectionate remembrance of the deceased, from those who esteemed and loved him in life. The sympathy of the community goes out to his bereaved parents and to others who were near and dear to him.

NEW CATHOLIC SCHOOL.

Preparations for the Dedication of St. Mary's Hall, at Washington, Next Sunday.

On next Sunday, Rt. Rev. Bishop C. P. Maes will dedicate the new St. Mary's School and Hall at Washington. The building is an elegant frame structure. It is intended to be used mainly for school purposes, but is so arranged that it can be converted into a hall 20x42 feet in size, wherein the progress of the pupils and the system practiced in the school can be shown to advantage at public exhibitions.

Surmounting the building is a cupola containing a bell whose iron tongue will wake the echoes of the surrounding country. The structure is the finest in Mason County of its kind, and is an evidence of the growth of the Catholic population in our community, and an evidence also of the able administration and good seed sown among his charge by the venerable pastor, Rev. Father Glorieux.

Preparations for the dedication Sunday are about complete. Omnibuses will run regularly during the morning from 8:30 o'clock and until 1:30 p. m., when the various societies will embark at the junction of Fourth street and Lexington pike and proceed to the scene of the ceremonies. The parade will take place promptly at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Persons not members of the various organizations are advised to go out during the forenoon and thereby avoid the crowd. Ample arrangements have been made for the comfort of all who may attend. Edibles of all kinds will be served on the grounds.

The sermon of the day will be delivered by the Rev. Father Matthew O'Brien, Professor of St. Mary's Theological Seminary, Cincinnati, Ohio. Rev. Fathers Hickey, Brinkmeyer and others will deliver short addresses.

Rev. Father Bealer, who has charge of the school and to whom the good people of Washington are indebted for the beautiful building, is using every effort to make the celebration a grand success, thereby crowning the noble work of the zealous and energetic Father with the success the undertaking deserves.

A Cutting Affray.

"Gus" Sullivan, the well-known watermelon-grower, and Weedon Foster, a tenant on John L. Broshears' farm in Charleston Bottom, became involved in a quarrel over some trivial matter yesterday about 11 o'clock. One word brought on another, until they finally came to blows, during which Foster made free use of a barlow-knife. Sullivan came out of the fracas with three rather ugly cuts—one over the stomach, one under the left armpit and another on the left side just above the hip-bone. Dr. Strode was called in and dressed the wounds. While the injuries are considered very serious, it is thought the knife did not enter the cavity, and Mr. Sullivan will likely be about in a short time.

Dropping Around a Broadway Hotel.
 "Now," continued a reporter, "this neighborhood is just full of luck of late. Not long since a restaurant keeper around in Blecker street, New York City, struck a $15,000 prize in the Louisiana State Lottery, and several other lucky strikes in the same concern followed rapidly. On top of this comes the announcement that E. A. Maden, the well-known printer of 137 Eighth street, drew $5,000, and Casagruac & Vieu, the leather merchants of 3 West Third street, drew $2,500 at the last drawing. They each sent $1 to M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La. They are well satisfied that the lottery company is conducting a strictly legitimate business on sound business principles.—New York Daily News, July 9.

Frederick Hotze's Will.

The will of Frederick Hotze, the aged German dairyman who died last Thursday night, was probated in the County Court Monday. Among the bequests made is one of twenty-five acres of land bought from Herman Ebersole, and also another tract adjoining above, to his daughter Louisa Otto, for and during her natural life and then to her children equally and their heirs and assigns forever. To his daughter Matilda Trost, of Pendleton County, Ky., he gave a part of his present farm called the Oliver Wright tract, adjoining the Ebersole tract, and containing about one hundred acres. Also to the said Mrs. Trost about twenty-five acres off the home farm. She is to hold the land during her natural life when it is to go to her children equally. The rest of his estate, real and personal, he bequeathed to his son Louis during his natural life and then to his (Louis') children equally.

The deceased made no bequests whatever to his sons Frederick, Charles, Theodore, Herman and William.

We desire to return our heart-felt thanks to the friends who so kindly gave assistance in the efforts to relieve our son from his intense suffering, which death alone effected, and to the many who so kindly remembered him in the beautiful floral offerings, expressing sympathy so much needed and so highly appreciated. Mr. and Mrs. Dr. J. H. Holton.

Echoes From the Blue Ribbon Fair.

The C. & O. Railroad handled on an average about 4,000 people each day. The large crowds were transported to and from the grounds without a single accident.

Prince Mark, the winner of the Hechinger stakes for foals of 1887 on Saturday, is the property of Mr. Lucien Maltby, of Washington. Prince Mark is a bay colt, by Bismarck, and promises to make a fast one with a little more age on him. He handled well Saturday and showed good speed for a youngster.

Among those who spent the week here were Hon. C. C. Watts and Col. Jno. A. Payton, of Charleston, W. Va. Mr. Watts is Attorney General of West Virginia. Both made a host of friends while here and were very much pleased with their visit, so much so in fact that the General said the blue ribbon fair next year would likely find him in Maysville again.

The most valuable shipment of horses ever sent out of Maysville was taken to Lexington Monday by the Adams Express over the K. C. The car contained Colonel Pepper's fine stable—Norval, Acolyte, Hourli, Cognac, Dessie Wingate and others, and one or two of Mr. James W. Fitzgerald's. The total value of the shipment is placed at about $150,000.

As one of the last trains was coming down from the grounds Saturday evening a lad in Chester hurled a rock at one of the coaches. The stone luckily struck the side of a window and dropped on the lap of Hon. R. K. Hart, of Fleming County. The little rascal should be hunted up and punished, otherwise he may continue rocking C. & O. trains, with more serious results to some passenger one of these days.

The 2:35 trot Saturday afternoon was one of the most exciting of the week. Diamond, the winner, and Mambrino Maid were about evenly matched. The last heat was trotted by these two almost neck and neck. In the home stretch the Maid had the lead by a length or so nearly all the way down. Diamond, however, gradually drew up and made a spurt at the finish that gave him the race. The finish was so close that many about the Judges' stand did not know which horse had won until the card was hung out.

The BULLETIN has heard many persons suggest since the close of the meeting that the company ought to add several new improvements before another fair. The greatest need is a floral hall. The present quarters under the amphitheatre are not adapted to such a display and were not intended for that purpose when the grounds were laid off. "The company would undoubtedly find it to their advantage," said a citizen, "to construct a neat hall of handsome design, where paintings, needle work, domestic goods, flowers, farm and garden products &c., could be appropriately displayed, and where everything could be kept neat and clean. It is suggested that the hall be made a 2-st ry, with a walk connecting the second-story with the promenade of the amphitheatre. "If the company will take some pride in beautifying their grounds," added the citizen above referred to, "they will undoubtedly add to the popularity of their fairs and races and make the association one of the best-paying institutions in this section." What say the Directors?

Here and There.

BUYING BONDS BY THE MILLIONS.

Assistant Secretary Batcheller Says That Wall Street Cannot Control the Price of United States Bonds—Other Washington Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—Assistant Secretary Batcheller, of the treasury department, was asked about the story that Wall street speculators have bought up $20,000,000 in bonds, forming a syndicate to force the secretary of the treasury to buy at their price, to prevent a stringency in the money market.

"All we know about it," said Mr. Batcheller, "is that we are getting all the bonds we want at our own figures. If there has been any such attempt as described it has failed. We got $2,000,000 of bonds yesterday at 128, our own price, and we had offers of $2,000,000 more at the same price. This is better than we have done before. We can get all the bonds we want at our price. There is no danger of a stringency in the money market. There is now an abundance of money. With $2,000,000 a day going into the banks I imagine no one expects a stringency."

Insane Hospital Report.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—Dr. W. W. Gooding, superintendent of the government hospital for the insane at Washington, in his annual report for the past fiscal year, says the veterans of the late war continue to be received in undiminished numbers from the soldiers' home here, although each returning season. Dr. Gooding says, "thins their ranks in the outside world and adds to the burden of the years of the survivors."

It will be some years yet, he thinks, before advancing mortality will more than counterbalance the increase in mental disease, resulting from the infirmities of age, conjoined with that inertia of life and loss of ambition and energy which seems to be inseparable from those conditions that compel the old soldiers to take refuge in the soldiers' home; and so he says it is impossible to foretell how long the increased number of admissions from the home will continue.

Owners of the Black Diamond, Americans.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—If an unofficial rumor, which has reached the state department is confirmed, it will give an almost comical effect to the angry remonstrances of the Americans against the operations of the revenue cutter Rush, in Behring sea. The story is to the effect that the steam sloop Black Diamond, which was the first vessel seized this year, is owned in a large degree, if not entirely by citizens of the United States. The information came to the department incidentally, while a quiet inquiry was being made into the truth of the statement that the United States vice consul at Victoria is interested largely in some colonial vessels, illegally seized in Behring sea, which statement has so far not been officially confirmed.

The Charleston a Success.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—A private dispatch received by an officer in the navy department from Irving M. Scott, President of the Union Iron works, San Francisco, the company that built the cruiser Charleston, says that a six hours run shows that the Charleston is a success in every respect.

No official confirmation of this dispatch has been received at the navy department from the naval officers on board the Charleston.

Good Market for Our Wheat.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—The department of agriculture is in receipt of a cablegram from its European agent in London, stating that the international grain market, in session at Vienna, estimates the wheat crop of Europe lower than was expected. The crop in Russia and Hungary is found especially bad.

A Generous King.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—The department of state has been informed of the recent very generous gift of his majesty, the King of Siam, for the use of the American Presbyterian mission, of one of the royal palaces, together with extensive grounds and buildings.

Justice Field's Case Dismissed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.—The United States circuit court has been officially informed that the charge of murder against Justice Field had been dismissed by the Stockton court. Judge Sawyer, accordingly dismissed the habeas corpus proceedings in the case of Justice Field.

Instantly Crushed to Death.

BELLEVILLE, Pa., Aug. 28.—Late yesterday Lloyd Heisler, aged 16 years, was instantly killed by a heavy steam boiler which he was assisting to load into a railroad car. The hoisting rope broke in two, allowing the boiler to roll back upon him, crushing his head in a horrible manner.

Chicago's Fair Committee Meeting.

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—Secretary Cragin, of the world's fair committee, said that over one-third of the $5,000,000 world's exposition stock, or $1,700,000, is already pledged, and Chicago's millionaires are yet to be heard from.

Gored to Death.

WARREN, Ind., Aug. 28.—A young son of John Bahlor, residing in the northern part of the city, was gored by an angry cow to-night while playing near his home. One of her horns penetrated the vitals of the lad, who died almost instantly.

TERRIFIC BOILER EXPLOSION.

Five Men Killed, Two Fatally and a Dozen Others Injured.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 28.—A special from Scranton, Pa., to The Times, says: The rolling mill and nail factory at Towanda, Bradford county, operated by Bostley, Godcharles & Company, was partially wrecked yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock by the explosion of a boiler, the disaster resulting in instant death of five men and fatally injury of two others, and slight injury of a dozen other workmen.

The dead are: Sanford B. Smith, puddler, married; Richard Ackley, roller, married; Guy Herman, helper, married; Isaac Bandford, helper, single.

The fatally injured are: Charles Zebich, terribly burned by molten metal; James Rider, both legs broken and internal injuries.

The force of the explosion was terrific, lifting the entire roof off the southern portion of the mill, tearing away the rafters and girders and leaving the whole mass crashing into the mill and upon the terrified force of workmen, who were scattering in every direction, and crouching behind all kinds of obstacles to escape the fury of the hissing steam, which was filling the structure from the nest of boilers that were displaced and broken in their steam connections by the exploding boiler, pieces of which were hurled through the mill. The larger portion of the bursted boiler was carried through the side of the mill, landing away in a mass of scrap iron fully 150 feet.

The explosions awful sound was heard all through the town, and great crowds of the inhabitants rushed to the mill to learn its effect. Workmen were soon marshalled by Richard A. Bostley and Simon Rendall, members of the firm, and they speedily removed the debris and released the men who were buried in it, and also recovering the bodies of the killed, some of whom were badly mangled and scalded.

Another Wool Failure.

Boston, Aug. 28.—John S. Mackintosh, wool puller of Milton, assigned. His liabilities are estimated at $100,000. The assignment is caused by the embarrassments of Brown, Steese & Clark and George W. Hollis.

James J. West, of The Chicago Times, is charged with fraudulently issuing 1,000 shares of stock of the company.

MRS. BURTON'S PENSION.

The Money Will Be Returned to the Government.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 28.—The case of the United States against Mrs. Burton, of Shelbyville, was called in the Federal court, but neither the defendant nor her attorney appeared.

Mrs. Burton's affidavit stating that she was not aware of the nature of the proceedings in the Shelby circuit court which resulted in the annulling of her second marriage was read, and the court then made the order against the Shelby bank perpetual. Under this the bank cannot pay the widow the $1,120 received from the pension office, and it will be returned to the government.

Representative Wilson, who conducted the proceedings at Shelbyville, will be prosecuted.

Decapitated on the Public Square.

HALIFAX, Aug. 28.—Capt. Angrove, of the steamer St. Pierre, who returned yesterday from St. Pierre, witnessed the execution of Nacl, who murdered a man named Coupard, some months ago. The execution took place at daylight on Saturday morning, in the public square, and was witnessed by 2,000 people. When all was arranged the knife dropped, completely severing the head, which dropped into a basket below.

Captured Train Robbers Escape.

DENVER, Col., Aug. 28.—Information received here from Thompson Springs, Utah, says that the Rio Grande train robbers were captured by a posse of whites and Indians on Monday afternoon, near the Navajo reservation, through strategy. The prisoners managed to escape by jumping from the wagons which were conveying them to Salt Lake. The pursuit has not been abandoned.

Excursionists' Close Call.

ALTON, Ill., Aug. 28.—Alton sent 1,500 excursionists to Springfield Sunday to attend the corner stone laying of a Catholic church. As one of the extra trains were returning early yesterday morning on the bluff line, the engine ran into a drove of horses and was derailed on a high embankment. Fortunately the train did not follow it, but the excursionists had a narrow escape.

PRICES CURRENT.

Review of the Money, Stock and Cattle Quotations for Aug. 27.

New York—Money at 5 1/2% per cent. Currency rates, 118 bid; four coupons, 125; four-and-a-halfs, 100% bid.

The stock market this morning opened quite active and strong. The first prices were from 1/4 to 3/4 per cent. higher than last evening's. After the first few minutes the activity subsided, but the tone continued strong and prices made further advances in some cases during the first hour. Toward noon the market was excessively dull and some of the leaders lost part of the early advance. At this writing the market is dull and heavy.
